Custom-made Clothes For Particular Men

THE sale of a custom-made suit at WANAMAKER'S is entirely dependent upon our making it so well that the man who ordered it will value it more highly than the money he is to pay for it.

That is our guarantee of satisfaction.

We ask no cash deposit.

The showing of medium and light-weight woollens includes excellent variety of new and handsome American and foreign stuffs, in the various wanted colorings.

Single or Double-breasted Sack Suits, made to your measure, at $25, $30, $35, $40 and $45.

Main floor, Wanamaker Building.

Artistic Apparel For Women

Distinguished Foreign Wraps and Costumes

Beautiful Collections of American Coats and Suits

The most complete and exhaustive assemblage of Women's Apparel that we have ever gathered together invites you to WANAMAKER'S today.

All the pages of all the fashion magazines, American and foreign, can suggest not half so much as The Open Book of Realism now here, composed of Dresses and Wraps in every favored style and of every conceivable fabric and coloring.

For the Most Important Occasions of Formal Dress.

For the Informal Afternoon Call.

For Shopping or Business wear.

The variety will meet every taste, every occasion, and every price-demand—with garments of unusual excellence throughout.

An Elaborate Display Of Exclusive SILKS

The new Silk Store with its ample space for properly displaying the beautiful silks presents an unusually interesting exhibition just now. We have brought from France a very large collection of the most beautiful weaves produced by the foreign makers. Assembled with them are lavish varieties of the best silks woven in America.

Very interesting at the moment are the new double-width printed Marquisesettes and Voiles. They are 44 inches wide, and printed in invisible checks, or woven with satin stripes and shepherd checks. They are appropriate for street, evening or reception gowns. A special room exhibits the evening colors under gaslight, to show their exact effect when worn. $2 a yard.

Another interesting assemblage at the present time is composed of about thirty thousand yards of Foulard Silks, most of which are printed in our own exclusive designs, some are exact duplicates of very high-priced foulards from Lyons, France. Included are all the staple and new shades, and the patterns include polka-dots in every size and spacing. 23 and 24 inches wide, 75c and $1 a yard.

We also present today a limited quantity of 36-inch Black Taffeta Silks of the usual 3 quality, at $1.50 a yard.

Second floor, Broadway, Stewart Building.

Smart Spring and Summer Millinery

That means modish hats of many types. Designers are on their mettle to produce chic hats, combining style and beauty. We invite you to see the results in the splendid showing of smart tailored hats and elegant carriage hats in our Millinery Salon. They express all the new shapes, new colors and new wifes in trimmings.

The New "Wanamaker Sailor"

is the quintessence of style. Trimmed with picturesque, softly tinted guinea wings, touched with Copenhagen blue or other colors, and with effective ornaments, holding the trim bows—they are the most striking models of the season. We also show a number of beautiful bonnets and Toques, in styles adapted to give becoming effect.

Hats, $10 to $25.

Third floor, Stewart Building.

Exceptional Values In Valenciennes Laces

Thinly sewn for women in the thick of April dressmaking. Both French and German laces in the assortment, and they are worth from one-fourth to one-third more than present prices. The patterns are particularly pretty, and there are also insertions, in more subtle, to match the edgings. Prices, 35c, 45c, 55c, 65c, 75c, 90c, $1, $1.10, $1.25, $1.55, $1.65 for one dozen yards.

Second floor, Stewart Building.

Old Silver and Silver Plate

IN the Antique Shop the lover of old silver will find delightful examples of the silversmith's art. Here is an English Silver Clock, Birmingham, 1745, shaped like a shrine surrounded by four pillars, for $80. Here, too, are a Wine Funnel, London, 1798, priced at $15, and a French Egg Set, period of Louis XV., for $32.50. Possibly a Creamer, London, 1787, at $22; a Tea Pot, London, 1805, for $50, or a pair of Venetian Flower Holders, early 17th Century, priced at $125 for the pair, would be even more attractive. Then, too, we have a Dutch Funnel, period of Louis XVI., for $16, and an English Tray, London, 1810, at $37.50, besides other equally beautiful articles.

Among the many articles of silver plate are two pairs of English Candlesticks, silver on bell-metal, 17th Century, priced at $18 a pair.

Fifth floor, Stewart Building.

You can't dig up an old suit among all our Spring mixtures—neither an old pattern nor an old cut.

We did think of keeping over a few hundred desirable suits of last Spring's cut, but finally threw them all into a clearance sale so as to have an absolutely clear deck for new things.

Spring suits, $18 to $40.

The very same thing is true among our boys' Spring mixture suits—every single one of them was made for this Spring.

Same thing again with our "Star" negligee shirts—an absolutely fresh stock.
